L HARD FIGHTING WELLING IS BEST OF CHICAGO'S LIGHTWEIGHT TRIU

After Defeating Phil Bloom and Jimmy Regan in Lightweight Class, Welling Went Against and Defeated Battling Kopin Who Had Just Beaten Jack Britton; He Wants to Fight Britton and Then Take on Welsh.

Kopin weighed 147 pcunds, while Welling scaled in under 125. The milling was fast throughout, and the end came in the eighth round, when Welling trust a hard right to Kopin's jaw.

Kopin never stirred while he was being counted out. It required several minutes to revive him. Here was Brittan's conquerer flattened by a man fulston calls him the wenderfully willing Weiling.

A Weilling-Britton match was then arranged by Boston promoters. A few days before the fight Britton withdrew from the match, claimins ill health.

This was one bout Weiling was eager to engage in. He has several reasons for this eagerness. First of all, he desires to avenge the defeat sustained by his stable mate Kid Lewis at the header.

calls him the wonderfully willing

EW YORK, July 22.—Chicago is well supplied in the matter of lightweight championship possibilities. In fact, the windy city has more than its quota of representative its poundsers who have a chance of wresting the world's title from Freddy Welsh. To enumerate, they are charley White, Ever Hammer and Joe Welling. The least press agented of this array has the best chance of becoming the next lightweight champion. Joe Welling, who came in surreptitiously fas all the requisites of a title holder; even more so than Charley White, who is considered among the three best lightweights in the world. White is Sipping.

The loster of Charley White's pugilistic star is rapidly dimming. Though Rill in the front trenches, White is perceptibly alipping back. He'has had no less than three chances at Welsh's crown, and he has not even floored the Pontypridd dancing master. Ever Hammer, a virtual novice, gave Welsh a severe thumping for ten rounds.

Welling has never fought Welsh, but the Chicanoan is still hopeful of a meeting with the champion. And he publises to do better than White and Hammer, have done—and that means a knockout for Welsh if Welling ever a knockout for Welsh if Welling ever gets him into the ring.

There can be little doubt but that Welling would make an ideal champion. He is of the fighting sort, which is more than can be said of Welsh Welling stands five feet eight inches and can easily make the lightweight limit. He has the largest reach of any lightweight in captivity. He is a two-handed fighter, and is even more clever than Ted Kid Lewis, his stable mate. Ash Lewis, we have it on the best of authority, is one of the fastest men that ever graced the ring.

Quickly Showed His Caliber. Quickly Showed His Caliber,
It did not take Weiling long to establish himself here as a lightweight of caliber. It required just three bouts under the management of Jones Joy Johnston, the demon promoter and manager, for Weiling to show his metlip. Weiling has fought in this vichity before, but it was not until the last few months that he forged into the first row of lightweight contendors.

That ended Welling's activities in the lightweight class, for the time beling, although well under the light-

Longboat has succeeded in his comeback, showing good form this season in uniform after a retirement of three years. Ted Wood, the Englishman who was a great rival of the Onondaga in the old amateur days, bobbed up with a rural corps this year and after a few months of soldiering was back in shape arain and has beaten Longboat in one race already. He had been out of the running game for five years. Jim Cockery, who was the favorite for the Boston Marathon this spring, is having great difficulty in keeping up with his company.

Amateur Rules Relaxed.

Amateur Rules Relaxed. For all the soldier-nihiletes of Cana-da the amateur rules have been relaxed and "shoon pures" compete with pro-fessionals like Longboat in all the fessionals like Longboat in all the closed contests. Boxing, the pros and amateurs meeting, has taken a great spurt and is the one big sport of all the camps. Baseball and soccer football are not far behind, thousands participating. The baseball outfits that Ban Johnson and American league players gave the Canadian soldiers have been worn out long ago.

Athletics are encouraged by the authorities. "All work and no play makes Jank a dull boy," recited Gen, Logie, commander at Borden, when he gave instructions through Capt. Flanagan that sports be made substitutes.
